

GSCF'S INTERNAL CONTROL ENVIRONMENT MEETS NEW INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS

Zug, Switzerland | May, 2012

After several consecutive years of obtaining the SAS 70 Type II attestation for the reliability and efficiency of its internal control environment, Global Supply Chain Finance Ltd. (GSCF) is glad to announce that it is now compliant with a new global standard, the “International Standard on Assurance Engagements” (ISAE) No. 3402 Type II report.

GSCF has especially selected this rigorous international benchmark to assess the suitability and effectiveness of its internal control system in order to comply with the security requirements of its business partners worldwide. GSCF is not only well-known for its extensive experience in developing innovative solutions for Supply Chain Finance programs but also has an outstanding reputation as a trustworthy partner with a proven internal control system on data processing, change management, IT infrastructure and accessibility to its operating systems and applications.

Kendall Stevens, CEO of GSCF commented: “Whereas many service organizations were forced to rethink and redesign their internal control system, GSCF successfully met the requirements of the ISAE 3402 Type II report within a short time frame thanks to our continuous efforts of always having the highest level of security”.
